

Santé! The Champagne Dame brings the bubbly to Albury

One of Australia's most popular champagne presenters Kyla Kirkpatrick, a.k.a. The Champagne Dame, is touring the east coast of Australia for a seven destination tour which includes Rockhampton, Hobart and the Mornington Peninsula. River town Albury will be one of her first stops!

Albury hot spot Border Wine Room will host the 'Modern Masters' champagne tasting event on the 3rd of March, where Kyla will showcase sensational champagnes in an exciting line up which represents the latest creations by the modern 'masters' of the champagne industry.

Kyla will share her years of champagne expertise and entertaining stories whilst guests explore a tasting through the champagne 'masterpieces' of these winemakers. Delicious grazing platters will accompany the exceptional 5 champagne tasting.

Champagne is globally the most luxurious and most evocative wine, with recent sales figures released revealing that it is growing faster in Australia than anywhere else in the world. In 2015 annual champagne sales in Australia jumped 24.5 % and were worth $560 million.

With 35,000 devoted champagne consumers on their database, The Champagne Dame offers a dedicated and complete champagne service to the Australian market of champagne lovers, and those who wish to understand more about the enigmatic wine. Her champagne events are in high demand due to her entertaining style and vast knowledge, which ignite the passion for champagne in all who attend!
